Notes

On the exercise of voting rights by absentee ballot and/or proxy authorisation instructions for a third party or an employee of the Company

If you are unable to take part in the Meeting in person but are registered to attend as a shareholder duly and on time, you may exercise your voting right either by absentee ballot or have it exercised by a third party or an employee of the Company. For this purpose, please use preferably the respective form printed on your admission ticket, or page 1 and 2 of this form; when exercising your voting right by absentee ballot or via an employee of the Company, the use of these forms is obligatory. Please note that the use of this form is not a substitute for the due registration for the AGM.

Please choose on page 1 of this form the desired options (field A, B or C) by placing a cross and, in case of field A or C, confer voting instructions for all resolution motions. Place a cross in the "Yes" box to denote your consent and in the "No" box to voice your rejection. No entry at all will be deemed to be an abstention. Double entries will be discarded as invalid. Please sign the form conferring proxy authorisation/instructions for a third party or an employee of the Company or insert a readable declaration, in which your person is named. Without such a completion, your voting instructions are deemed to be an absentee ballot form.

Please submit the proxy authorisation/instructions for a third party (field B) to your proxy in due time before the beginning of the AGM, so he/she can present it for inspection at the entrance and exit desk on the day of the AGM. For this purpose, the entrance and exit desk is at your disposal from 9.00 am (CET) onwards on the day of the AGM. Alternatively, you can communicate the grant, the cancellation and the evidence of proxy for a third party to the address HeidelbergCement AG, Abt. GL, Berliner Strasse 6, 69120 Heidelberg or via telefax: + 49 (0) 6221-481-13705 or via e-mail to the e-mail-address: HCAG-HV2018@computershare.de.

Absentee votes (field A) or proxy authorisation/instructions for an employee of the Company (field C) must be received at the latest by midnight (CET) on 7 May 2018, at the address: HeidelbergCement AG, Abt. GL, Berliner Strasse 6, 69120 Heidelberg or via telefax: + 49 (0) 6221-481-13705 or by the end of the general debate in the AGM via e-mail at the e-mail-address: HCAG-HV2018@computershare.de. The same applies to the amendment and the cancellation of absentee votes and proxy authorisation/instructions for an employee of the Company. The receipt at the Company is decisive in all cases. On the day of the AGM proxies/instructions for an employee of the Company can be granted, amended or cancelled at the entrance and exit desk of the AGM from 9.00 am (CET) onwards.

If absentee votes are received along with a proxy authorisation/instructions for an employee of the Company via the same channel, the submitted absentee votes are deemed to be cancelled and the proxy authorisation/instructions for an employee of the Company prevails. If absentee votes and/or a proxy authorisation/instructions for an employee of the Company are received via different channels, the last received prevails. If no determination can be made as to which of the above is overriding, absentee votes and/or a proxy authorisation/instructions for an employee of the Company received in writing shall prevail over any received by fax or e-mail; absentee votes and/or a proxy authorisation/instructions for an employee of the Company received by fax shall prevail over any received via e-mail.

As an absentee voter, you cannot exercise those participation rights going beyond the rights to vote, such as putting forward a motion, raising questions or delivering statements. Employees of the Company exercising the right to vote are exclusively bound to your instructions. Any further mandate will not be exercised by an employee of the Company. Should you wish to exercise your shareholder rights in excess of the scope described, you may attend the Meeting yourself or authorize a third party to do so for you.

Even after submission of an absentee ballot or conferring proxy authorisation/instructions for an employee of the Company, you retain the right to take part in the AGM personally. If you grant proxy authorisation/instructions for a third party by using this form (field B), the proxy authorisation/instructions for third persons is cancelled upon your participation in the AGM in person. If you grant proxy authorisation/instructions for an employee of the Company, the proxy authorisation/instructions for an employee of the Company is cancelled upon your participation or the participation of an authorized third party in the AGM in person. Received absentee ballots are automatically deemed to be cancelled in this case.

Motions and/or election proposals of shareholders (counterproposals) required to be disclosed are published in the Internet at

<https://www.heidelbergcement.com/en/annual-general-meeting-2018>

You may advocate a counterproposal aimed solely at dismissing the respective resolution proposal by voting against the Board proposal. For lack of explicit instructions, absentee votes or the proxy authorisation/instructions for an employee of the Company exercising the right to vote do not entitle any voting on more far-reaching motions, such as counterproposals or procedural motions.

Please also note the additional details for participation in the AGM and for the execution of the voting rights that are included in the Invitation to the AGM.
